The Journal of Prisoners on Prisons is published twice a year. Its purpose is to encourage research on a wide range of issues related to crime, justice, and punishment by prisoners and former prisoners. Donations to the JPP are gratefully received.

SUBMISSIONS: Prisoners and former prisoners are encouraged to submit papers, collaborative essays, discussions transcribed from tape, book reviews, and photo or graphic essays. The Journal does not usually publish fiction or poetry. The Journal will publish articles in either French or English. Articles should be no longer than 20 pages typed and double spaced or legibly handwritten. Electronic submissions are gratefully received. Writers may elect to write anonymously or under a pseudonym. For references cited in an article, the writer should attempt to provide the necessary bibliographic information. Refer to the references cited in this issue for examples. Submissions are reviewed by editorial board members. Selected articles are corrected for composition and returned to the authors for their approval before publication. Papers not selected are returned with editor's comments. Revised papers may be resubmitted. Please submit biographical and contact information, to be published alongside articles unless otherwise indicated.
