The Journal of Prisoners on Prisons is published twice yearly in the Summer and Winter by the Journal of Prisoners on Prisons. Its purpose is to encourage research on a wide range of issues related to crime, justice, and punishment by prisoners and former prisoners.

Submissions

Prisoners and former prisoners are encouraged to submit papers, collaborative essays, discussions transcribed from tape, book reviews, and photo or graphics essays. The Journal does not publish fiction or poetry. Articles should be less than 20 pages in length, typed double-spaced or legibly handwritten. Writers may elect to write anonymously or under a pseudonym. References cited in an article must include the author(s)' name(s), the title (in the case of periodicals, the periodical's title and volume number), publisher and publication date, and relevant page number(s). Submissions are reviewed by the editorial board. Selected articles are corrected for composition and returned to their authors for their approval before publication. Papers not selected are returned with editor's comments. Revised papers may be resubmitted. Deadline for submissions for the Winter 1988 issue is September, 1988.

Subscriptions for one year are (Canadian or U. S.) $10.00 for individuals, $7.00 for persons on low income, $4.00 for prisoners, and $20.00 for organizations. Individual copies are $5.00. Donations are gratefully received.
