The Journal of Prisoners on Prisons is published twice yearly in the Summer and Winter by the Journal of Prisoners on Prisons. Its purpose is to encourage research on a wide range of issues related to crime, justice, and punishment by prisoners and former prisoners.

All rights reserved. This includes the right to reproduce this journal or portions thereof in any form. Opinions expressed herein are not necessarily those of the publishers, editors, or sponsors. Copyright ©1988.

Submissions
Prisoners and former prisoners are encouraged to submit papers, collaborative essays, discussions transcribed from tape, book reviews, and photo or graphic essays. The Journal does not publish fiction or poetry. Beginning with the Summer 1989 issue the Journal will be publishing articles in either French or English. Articles should be typed double spaced or legibly handwritten. Writers may elect to write anonymously or under a pseudonym. For references cited in an article, the writer should attempt to provide the necessary bibliographic information. References following the articles in this issue provide examples. Submissions are reviewed by an editorial board. Selected articles are corrected for composition and returned to their authors for their approval before publication. Papers not selected are returned with editor’s comments. Revised papers may be resubmitted. Deadline for submissions for the Summer 1989 issue is February 1989; for the Winter 1989 issue it is August 15, 1989.

Subscriptions for one year are (Canadian or U.S.) $10.00 for individuals, $7.00 for persons on low income, $4.00 for prisoners, and $20.00 for organizations. Individual copies are $5.00. Donations are gratefully received.
