The Journal of Prisoners on Prisons

Volume 5
Number 1
Autumn, 1993

$7.00
The Journal of Prisoners on Prisons is published semi-annually. Its purpose is to encourage research on a wide range of issues related to crime, justice, and punishment by prisoners and former prisoners.

SUBMISSIONS: Prisoners and former prisoners are encouraged to submit papers, collaborative essays, discussions transcribed from tape, book reviews, and photo or graphic essays. The Journal does not publish fiction or poetry. The Journal will publish articles in either French or English. Articles should be no longer than 20 pages typed and double spaced or legibly handwritten. Writers may elect to write anonymously or under a pseudonym. For references cited in an article, the writer should attempt to provide the necessary bibliographic information. Refer to the references cited in this issue for examples. Submissions are reviewed by an editorial board. Selected articles are corrected for composition and returned to the authors for their approval before publication. Papers not selected are returned with editor's comments. Revised papers may be resubmitted.

SUBSCRIPTIONS for one year are (Canadian or U.S.) $10.00 for individuals, $7.00 for persons on low income, $4.00 for prisoners, and $20.00 for organizations. Individual copies are $7.00. Donations are gratefully received.
In This Issue

EDITOR'S INTRODUCTION

Bob Gauthier ................................................................. 1

ARTICLES

The Man Who Didn't Do It
Victor Hassine .............................................................. 4

Executions Are Degrading to Society
Michael Ross ................................................................. 14

The Order of Things
Michael P. Smith ........................................................... 18

Beating the System
Joseph E. McCormick ..................................................... 20

Two Kinds of Prisons
Joseph E. McCormick ..................................................... 23

A New Act for Prisons and Parole
Roy Claremin ................................................................. 26

Sunday, Bloody Sunday
A Field Marshall .............................................................. 33

RESPONSE

A Political Fugitive: The Case of Little Rock Reed
(A Story of Due Process the American Way)
Deborah Garlin ............................................................... 39

PRISONERS' STRUGGLES

Daniel Dos Santos ......................................................... 55

BOOK REVIEWS

Peter Linebaugh. 1992. The London Hanged:
Crime and Civil Society in the Eighteenth Century
Gordon Haas ................................................................. 57